

Richard Poularde

Location :

South East of France

French Wine

Grande Réserve

High Quality Grape

Produced in the South East of France close to Nîmes, Richard Poularde has rich aromas of red and black fruits, such as strawberries, cherries and black currants. The spice flavor is also obvious, accompanied with the aroma of toast. The tannins are fine and smooth, wine body is full and balanced.

- Occasion : Meal, Celebration, Gift
- Alcohol Vol : 14.5% vol
- Type : Red Wine
- Vintage : 2019
- Serving : 16-18°C
- Bottle Size : 750 ml
- Taste : Full and balanced
- Quality : Vin de France

France is arguably the world's most important wine-producing country. For centuries, it has produced wine in greater quantity and of reportedly greater quality than any other nation. The diversity of French wine is due to the country's wide range of climates. Richard Poularde is made by french traditional wine making process and present a typical style of french red wine.

Pairing Suggestion : red meat, game, cheese and barbecue.

Wine tasting : Nice toasted and vanilla smell, red and black fruits aromas such as strawberry and blackcurrant, balanced and full body with a long lasting taste with elegant tannins.

From : South East of France

Grape varieties : 100% Merlot

